

Code:

Call of the Mountains: A Journey to Bandarban {#custom-id}

My relationship with mountains is continuous and feels like an enchanting story! I had been thinking about going somewhere for a long time. Finally, I decided: ==not Sajek, I'm heading to Bandarban==.

> "To walk in nature is to witness a thousand miracles." – Tour Guide

Preparations & Planning

Before setting off, I completed my checklist:

- [x] Train Ticket booking
- [x] Warm jacket packing
- [] Power bank charging
- [] Contact the media

We brought essential items with us, and our total bag volume was around 500 m², which was perfectly dynamic.

Tour Logistics

: All necessary items for the expedition and vehicle rental.

Mountain Food

: Local Bamboo Chicken and Shidol Bhorta.

The Departure

Stepping onto the Chittagong-bound train felt like entering a whole new world. Everyone was so happy :joy: !

~~Our journey wasn't completely smooth~~
but every wrong turn gave us a brand new experience.

1. Boarding the train
2. Catching the local bus
3. Hiring a local Chander Gari (jeep)

Mountain Streams & Hydration

While trekking through the mountains, the most vital thing you need is pure H₂O (water).

As our vehicle climbed towards Nilgiri, a breathtaking view appeared before our eyes. Here is a picture and a useful resource link:

![[Bandarban Landscape]](<https://images.unsplash.com/photo-1507525428034-b723cf961d3e?auto=format&fit=crop&w=600&q=80>)

To learn more about this destination, visit [[Travel Guide BD]](<https://www.example.com>).

Tour Budget & Expenses

Here is a breakdown of our expenses during the trip:

Syntax	Description
Transport	3,500 BDT
Food	2,000 BDT
Resort	4,000 BDT

Travel Itinerary Data

Our itinerary was structured in JSON format:

```
```json
{
 "firstName": "John",
 "lastName": "Smith",
 "age": 25
}
```

Output:

Call of the Mountains: A Journey to Bandarban

My relationship with mountains is continuous and feels like an enchanting story! I had been thinking about going somewhere for a long time. Finally, I decided: not Sajek, I'm heading to Bandarban.

"To walk in nature is to witness a thousand miracles." — Tour Guide

---

Preparations & Planning

Before setting off, I completed my checklist:

- ☒ Train Ticket booking
- ☒ Warm jacket packing
- ☐ Power bank charging
- ☐ Contact the media

We brought essential items with us, and our total bag volume was around 500 m<sup>2</sup>, which was perfectly dynamic.

Tour Logistics

All necessary items for the expedition and vehicle rental.

Mountain Food

Local Bamboo Chicken and Shidol Bhorta.

---

The Departure

Stepping onto the Chittagong-bound train felt like entering a whole new world. Everyone was so happy 😊 !

~~Our journey wasn't completely smooth~~
but every wrong turn gave us a brand new experience.

1. Boarding the train
2. Catching the local bus
3. Hiring a local Chander Gari (jeep)

Mountain Streams & Hydration

While trekking through the mountains, the most vital thing you need is pure H<sub>2</sub>O (water).

As our vehicle climbed towards Nilgiri, a breathtaking view appeared before our eyes. Here is a picture and a useful resource link:

To learn more about this destination, visit Travel Guide BD.

---

Tour Budget & Expenses

Here is a breakdown of our expenses during the trip:

Syntax	Description
Transport	3,500 BDT
Food	2,000 BDT
Resort	4,000 BDT

---

Travel Itinerary Data

Our itinerary was structured in JSON format:

```
{
 "firstName": "John",
 "lastName": "Smith",
 "age": 25
}
```

